With only one owner and very low mileage for its year, this 2018 Renault Clio TCE Play is a great find. This Clio is equipped with a 0.9L petrol engine and is Euro 6 emission class compliant. The Play trim adds a touch of style and practicality to this popular supermini.

This particular Clio stands out due to its low CO2 emissions and low insurance group, meaning it could be more economical to run than similar vehicles. Choosing a car with these attributes can lead to savings and peace of mind. The Renault Clio remains a popular choice, and this one could be the ideal option for those seeking an affordable and efficient vehicle.
